

Survey work for supply of power in Hura and Heggadahalli in Nanjangud Taluk.

* Q.—560. Sri N. RACHAIAH (Nanjangud).—

Will the Government be pleased to state :—

- (a) whether it is not a fact that survey for supply of power to Hura and Heggadahalli in Nanjangud Taluk has already been conducted ;
- (b) if so, whether they will supply power to these villages as early as possible ?

A.—Sri S. NIJALINGAPPA (Chief Minister).—

(a) The survey work in respect of Hura village is in progress and that of Heggadahalli has been completed.

(b) Yes, if the projects are found to yield a minimum revenue of 7.5 per cent per annum on the estimated cost.

Inam and Watan lands at Ambewadi village, Belgaum Taluk.

*Q.—562. Sri V. S. PATIL (Belgaum-1).—

Will the Government be pleased to state :—

(a) whether the inam and watan lands at Ambewadi village in Belgaum Taluk are under the management of the Government and if so, since when ;

(b) why these lands are taken up over the Government under their management; and under what provision of law ;

(c) whether it is a fact that majority of them have been released and if so, when; and how many are under Government management still ;

(d) whether there is any likelihood of these lands being released to the owners ;

(e) whether they have made any provision for the payment of the occupancy price for them as Government are managing the lands ?

A.—Sri M. V. KRISHNAPPA (Minister for Revenue).—

(a) Yes, since 1930.

(b) In order to put an end to the frequent and bitter disputes between the villagers and the inamdars and also with a view to improve the social and economic conditions of the peasants in the estates. The management of the lands was taken over by the ex-Kurundwad State under sec. 111 of the Land Revenue Code and after the merger of that State with Bombay State it was continued under the provision of the B.T.A.L. Act.

(c) Yes. The lands of 15 khatedars out of 27 were released in 1953. The lands of the remaining 12 khatedars are still under the management of Government.

(d) The question is being examined.

(e) Yes.
